MONEY MARKET HEALTHFUL.

Resumption of Normal Conditions
Comes Opace With Renewed Faith
In Eastern Financial Circles.

The local business situation shows a continued advance toward a re-establishment of permanent prosperity. In the banking world the tone of the money market indicates as last week, healthful conditions. Banks have begun to return the $45,000,000 called for by the secretary of the treasury, but receipts from the interior have so far met any loss sufficient to cause fear of any stringency.

Under the title of "The Promise in the West," an eastern financial magazine publishes the following pertinent paragraph which certainly applies to conditions in Salt Lake: "The banking has been particularly successful in the west, showing that there is every reason, as well as promise, for the wonderful growth and development. In a recent banking failure the court allowed the banking institution which purchased the assets of the failed concern, two years in which to repay the creditors. Before the first year has ended all the liabilities will have been cancelled. This is but one instance of the solidity of affairs out through these districts, where there are no such things as failures, but only a money."

Local conditions continue about the same with plenty of money to loan on satisfactory security. Deposits are increasing, and the bank clearings are showing up well.

IN REALTY CIRCLES.

The realty market has been satisfactory during the week. There have not been any sales of special note, but there have been many of moderate amounts. For anyone looking for openings for capital or industry there is certainly no better field than out through these districts, where there are no such things as failures, but only a money."

LUMBER.

The lumber trade reports good prospects with business maintaining itself, and stocks moving fairly well. However, dealers think it will be nearer summer before any considerable movement of lumber takes place, and the light trade will largely influence it.

HARDWARE.

The hardware trade reports conditions increasing, and barring mining machinery sales which are still rather slow, trade is steadily improving. Dealers report heavy sales of hardware, photograph supplies, automobile supplies, refrigerators, paints, oils, window glass. They say it is proving the best year for the paint trade ever had in this city. There is likewise good call for sporting goods.

DRY GOODS.

In the dry goods trade, wholesale dealers report heavy sales in the jobbing of fall dress goods. There are many receipts of new styles from the mills in new and original designs. Jobbers say this is a "between seasons halt" in the general dry goods market, although warmer weather has been stimulating the retail business.

HUSLER'S FLOUR

From the farmer's wagon to the flour bin in your pantry—absolute cleanliness marks the preparation and handling of

They say the seasons have run together in the past two or three years. While the adjustment of conditions, stocks of domestic merchandise are reported being worked down to a point where considerable replenishing will be necessary by June. The print markets are reported dull, with light demand for May and June. Jobbers complain it is hard to sell this class of goods, but they manage to be doing a normal business just the same. On coarse and medium weight colored goods for working shirts and suits, business is reported at a low ebb, with values being lowered, and the mills not seeing their way for the summer months. Duck is on lower levels of values, owing to cutting prices, with sheeting and drills marked down also. Few inquiries are reported for domestic cotton staples. Among the novelties in favor is the development of side bands on fine yarn goods, especially in batistes and in various fashionable shades. More interest is reported in fine shirtings. The retail trade has been very fair during the week.

AN UNPRECEDENTED SALE IN CARS.

The Consolidated Wagon & Implement Company received a carload of Buicks from the manufacturers last Thursday morning, and by 11 o'clock they had disposed of every car. A large 4-cylinder was sold to James A. Silver of this city, two were shipped to parties at Twin Falls, one was purchased by Mr. Langton at Logan, and Judge Hutchinson of Salt Lake was soon in possession of another. From southern Utah came another order. Mr. Lundberg of Mt. Pleasant wanted a model "F" Buick, and the moment the car reached its destination it elicited so much favorable comment that an additional order was the result. Still further, communication came over the phone yesterday morning from Mt. Pleasant that Mr. Potter, traveling salesman, had secured an order for another model "F." The Consolidated Wagon & Implement Company immediately wired the manufacturers for two more carloads, one practically being sold already, and rush orders coming daily will soon claim the remaining cars.

BANK CLEARINGS.

FLOWING WELL AT SEAFORD, I.

New York, May 9.—Engineers acting for New York City today found a freely flowing well at a depth of 763 feet at Seaford, L. I. This, it is believed, proves the theory of many engineers that there exists an underground current of clear water running at a great depth beneath the surface of Long Island, entirely independent of the surface supply.

TRADE AFFECTED BY THE WEATHER

Effect Has Been to Cause a
Slackening in Buying of Seasonable Goods.

MARKET IS VERY BACKWARD.

Demand for Light Wearing Apparel
Checked—Financial Sentiment Improves.

New York, May 8.—Dun's Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say: Weather conditions have exercised much influence this week on retail trade in seasonable merchandise, and dealings at the leading commodity exchanges. Low temperature checked the demands for light wearing apparel in a market that was always backward, and heavy rains started reports of damage to the crops yet there was no evidence of serious injury. Manufacturing conditions show little change, much machinery being idle and new business coming forward slowly. In some industries there is still a disposition to wait for lower prices, although restricted demand during the past six months must render replenishment of stocks almost imperative. Financial sentiment improves as restrictions are removed from commercial credits and sales of bonds provide funds for structural work.

THAW'S CASE.

Claimed Commitment is Insufficient to Hold Him Further.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 8.—Counsel for Harry K. Thaw today filed a traverse to the return on Thaw, a writ of habeas corpus. The chief question raised by the traverse is the constitutionality of Thaw's commitment in the Matteawan state hospital. It is alleged that the return made by Dr. Amos T. Baker is invalid, null and void. It is claimed that the commitment is insufficient for Thaw's further detention because it does not show that Thaw was ever arraigned before Justice Dowling, who made the commitment, or that any witnesses were produced or examined in his presence; or that Thaw had any opportunity to deny the charge of insanity; or that his going at large would be dangerous to public peace and safety.

ANNA ALDRICH'S MURDERER.

All Attempts to Make Bud Barnes
Confess, Futile.

Walla Walla, Wash., May 9.—Bud Barnes, the alleged murderer of Mrs. Anna Aldrich, near Dixie last Friday, has undergone another sweating process at the hands of Sheriff Haviland tonight. The effort to induce a confession of the crime was ineffectual. A party led by Prosecuting Atty. Otto Rupp made a trip to the scene of the murder yesterday. It is supposed that the prosecuting attorney is working on the theory that Mrs. Aldrich's former husband, Jeff Doggett, who has been missing since Tuesday, met a similar fate at the hands of Bud Barnes and that his remains will be found under similar circumstances attending the discovery of Mrs. Aldrich.

Portland, Or., May 9.—A special dispatch to the Evening Telegram, from Walla Walla, Wash., says the coroner's jury investigating the violent death of Mrs. Anna Aldrich returned a verdict that her death was caused from blows from a blunt instrument in the hands of persons unknown.

William Barnes, the man accused of the atrocious murder of the aged woman, does not know that the body has been found, or that the mattress handle with which the crime is believed to have been committed is in the hands of the police. Barnes protests that the woman will be found alive and that he is innocent of the crime.

MAY MAKE RESTITUTION.

Pittsburg, May 8.—According to the United States government officials, there are no new developments in the alleged irregularities of the Allegheny National bank, which became public yesterday through the arrest of William Montgomery, the cashier on a charge of embezzling $469,000. Bank Examiner Folds is continuing his examination of the affairs of the bank. The arrest of Montgomery continues to be one of the greatest sensations that has occurred here in several years. The Allegheny National banking institution opened as usual today. According to a report today, Cashier Montgomery will restore the entire amount of the shortage.

WANT AMENDMENT PROHIBITING POLYGAMY

Baltimore, May 8.—Giving advance years as his reason Rev. Dr. J. M. Thoburn, missionary bishop of Bombay, India, today asked the general conference of the M. E. church to retire him from active service. His request, which was referred to the committee on episcopacy, created a deep impression among the delegates who testified their regard for him by rising and applauding him. Bishop Goodsell presided today. A large number of memorials were handed up from the various conferences. Mrs. Florence D. Richards of the Central Ohio conference secured the unanimous adoption of a resolution appealing to Congress to submit to the states an amendment to the Constitution prohibiting polygamy. The resolution points out that two such propositions are before the United States senate.

DOUMA SCENE OF ANTI JEWISH DEMONSTRATION

St. Petersburg, May 8.—An anti-semitic demonstration broke loose in the Duma tonight during an executive session devoted to the debate of the question of recruits for 1908. Lieut. Gen. Rudiger, the minister of war, and Minister of Foreign Affairs Tawolsky both were present. During the course of the debate M. Zamslovsky, in a rabid speech urging the immediate exclusion of Jews from the army, dwelt on the pernicious influence of the Jewish anti-government propaganda with the rank and file of the army. He said 25 per cent of the Jewish conscripts evade military service, the customary practice being to emigrate to America, puncture their drums, or maim the trigger finger.

M. K. Rupensky, a marshal of the nobility, followed with a motion to strike off Jewish recruits from the conscript list and to impose upon them a head tax in favor of the invalid pension fund.

E. N. Roditcheff, the constitutional democratic leader, in an impassioned defense of the Jews, branded Russia's treatment of them. During his speech he was interrupted constantly by angry rejoinders.

HEINZE SUED BY RECEIVER OF AETNA BANK & TRUST CO

New York, May 8.—A suit to recover approximately $100,000 from F. Augustus Heinze and A. B. Clements was begun in the supreme court here today by Robert Lyons, receiver of the Aetna Banking and Trust company of Butte, Mont. Heinze formerly was president and Clements manager of the institution. They are asked to account for $100,000 worth of stock, a credit of $37,770 and for another amount of $43,000.

It is stated in the complaint that in November, 1906, Heinze paid $100,000 to E. T. Wilson, acting receiver of the bank, for the benefit of its creditors. This $100,000, according to the complaint, was distributed among the creditors of the bank, reducing its liability to that extent. The receiver now asks the court that, if this application of the $100,000 was proper, Heinze and Clements be required to account for stock of the bank having a face value of $100,000. They also are asked to account for alleged loss and damages to the company which, it is charged, were due to their negligence, unlawful acts, misconduct and fraud.

SHERIFF AND DEPUTY HAVE MOSNEY SURROUNDED

Butte, Mont., May 8.—A special from Lewistown, Mont., to the Miner, says:

Sheriff Edward Martin and Deputy Sheriff Al. Morgan, now in the field after the notorious half-breed outlaw Mosney, are uninjured and have the desperado cornered in a cave near Arrow Creek. John Walsh rode in from there today and brought this news with him. He states that the officers soon got on the trail of their man and finally penned him up in his retreat from which he can escape only through surrender, as it will do him no good to fight all the advantages being on the sheriff's side. Walsh said it was expected when he left that there might be a termination of the affair at any moment, and adds that there is no room for the man being Mosney. The report gives the friends of the sheriff and deputy great satisfaction, especially in view of the reports that have been in circulation to the effect that one of the officers had been shot. It also explains the reason why Martin has not sent in any messages from Arrow Creek.

NEGRO LYNCHED.

Nashville, Tenn., May 8.—Elmer Harward, 18 years old, a negro arrested Wednesday at Pulaski for attempted assault, was lynched today by a mob of 200 unknown men. The men broke open the jail and over the protest of the sheriff carried the negro to a bridge and hanged him.
